

Conceptual Model of the University of Future

S.V. Mishchenko

Tambov State Technical University

Key words and phrases: infrastructure; science; education; production; resources; technology; university.

Abstract: Matters concerning the foundation of integrated center of continuous education, which is the complete stage of integration of education, science and production, are considered. The purpose of the integrated center of continuous education, science and high tech is effective functioning on the basis of scientific educational and innovative technological institution as the national center of education, science, production and culture, where training of highly-qualified specialists is combined with modern scientific research and is implemented within the framework of systematically-controlled combination of integrated educational innovative complexes created on the basis of scientific educational schools.