

Issues of Quality Control over Services in Regional Property Complex

M.E. Makurina

Regional Department of Rosimushchestvo in Tambov Region

Key words and phrases: property; quality; standards; requirements; living standards; services.

Abstract: The problem of improving quality of services in property sector is considered at two levels: national and professional; approaches to understanding the quality of life are formulated; managerial structures, which control federal property, provide national services and guarantee that they meet quality requirements and are available to organizations, are characterized. It indicates the significant improvement of national services in regional property complex in Tambov region, but further work in this direction is to be done.
