

Matters of Quality Control over Housing and Communal Services of the City

N.A. Sosnovsky

SMUP "Ezhvinsky zhilkomkhov", Syktyvkar

Key words and phrases: housing and communal services (HCS); financial expenses on HCS; quality of housing and communal services; housing and communal services reform; social-oriented policy.

Abstract: As housing and communal services charges for general public and companies as well as budget expenses on financing of HCS at different levels are constantly growing, the utility enterprises are experiencing financial and economical problems. Investment attractiveness of HCS complex is very low and can be improved when the quality of services is enhanced and conforms to the requirements of market economy.
