

The Problem of Power and Subordination in the System of In-Company Communication

E.P. Logunova, S.V. Voishvilova

Michurinsk State Agricultural University

Key words and phrases: authority; in-company relations; business communication; national awareness; Russian culture.

Abstract: The problem of power and subordination in the system of in-company communication is studied within the framework of public relations studies, philosophy, culturology and theology. The attention is given to identification of special features of the studied phenomenon in the context of theology, which is both historical and culture-forming factor of Russian culture.

---