

Perfection of Integration Links on the Basis of Holding Structures Creation in Russian Poultry Farming

R.A. Smykov

Michurinsk State Agricultural University

Key words and phrases: agro-holding; vertical integration; types of integral formations; poultry farming.

Abstract: The paper studies the corporate model of integration on the basis of property, uniting enterprises of various branches integrally connected in technical and economic senses. Based on the analysis of Russian experience of creation and functioning of vertically integrated structures main types of agro-holdings are identified. Distinctive features of agro-holdings in poultry farming are revealed.
