

Ethics and Every Day Life in China

Zhilian Zheng

*Dean of the Faculty of Russian Language
Qingdao University of Science and Technology
Qingdao, People's Republic of China, postgraduate*

Key words and phrases: culture of the East and West; correct conduct; motivation of actions; priorities of the collective interests; social role of the individual; the priority of feelings over the mind.

Abstract: The paper looks at the basic aspects of the Chinese Ethics, considers the differences between Eastern Ethics, especially the Chinese one, and Western Ethics, describes the influence of ethical norms of the Chinese society on spiritual and material life of an individual.
