

Up-to-Date Problems of Social and Economic Development of Countryside

N.G. Fontanetskaya

Kuban State University, Krasnodar

Key words and phrases: decrease in village living standards; social development of the countryside; economic situation in the countryside.

Abstract: The solution to the problems of social and economic development of the countryside depends on a number of federal, regional and local factors as well as the interaction of authorities representatives, state and private structures, planners and residents.
