Problems of Estimation of Quality and Competitiveness of Goods and Services in Food and Processing Industry

V.V. Gorin

Tambov State Technical University, Tambov

Key words and phrases: food and processing industry; improvement of living standards; market mechanism; production quality management.

Abstract: The paper deals with the application of the multi-functional system at industrial enterprises; it consists of a complex system aimed at both improvement of manufacturing and control over quality production through effective use of resources meeting the requirement of quality standards ISO 9000.