

To the Question of Place and Role of Experience in the Course of Socialization

T.N. Chernyaeva

Teachers' Training Institute of Saratov State University named after N.G. Chernyshevsky, Saratov

Key words and phrases: childhood; individualization; experience; personal experience; education; socialization; social inheritance.

Abstract: The place and the importance of the experience in the process of human socialization are specified. The points of their intersection are shown; the correlation between the socialization and individualization is defined. The child's experience as a unique personal-active form factor is revealed.