

Goals and Tasks of Teaching Written Translation of Legal Papers to Senior Students of Law Universities

T.B. Kosareva

State University – Higher School of Economics, Moscow

Key words and phrases: teaching aspects; basic competences; extra qualification; classification of goals and tasks; professional communication translator; specific features of the language of law; translator's skills and competences.

Abstract: The paper studies the goals and tasks of teaching translation of legal documents within the framework of the course "Professional Communication Translator". The problems of classification of goals and tasks of teaching a foreign language and developing translating competences in the supplement to teaching translation of legal documents are analyzed.