Quality Control Audit in Innovative Educational Organization in the Course of State Purchasing

A.E. Ermolaev

Tambov State Technical University, Tambov

Key words and phrases: state purchasing; innovative educational organization; research and experimental work; operational audit of quality systems; budget funds spending.

Abstract: The paper studies the process of state purchasing for the needs of innovative educational organization in terms of continuous audit of quality control over this process. Organizational difficulties of the interaction between the university structural divisions responsible for state purchasing are revealed. It is proposed to create a single coordinating structural unit responsible for operational audit in the course of state purchasing.

© А. Е. Ермолаев, 2008