

Model of Modern Engineer Competence as Basis of Educational Program Design

N.V. Molotkova, M.A. Sviryaeva

Tambov State technical University, Tambov

Key words and phrases: two-level system of training; engineering work; competence approach; professional training.

Abstract: In present-day conditions it is necessary to modernize the system of education. Modern standard education must be based on the competence model. Particular attention must be given to engineering specialties.