

Development of Students' State Social Management in Higher Professional Training System

M.V. Zabavnikov, I.O. Evstykhin, E.A. Rokitina

Tambov State Technical University, Tambov

Key words and phrases: state youth policy strategy; primary trade union organization; civil society; students' self-management; co-management in higher educational institution; competence approach; public organizations.

Abstract: The paper studies the work of students' self-management body functioning on the basis of primary trade union organization and implementing the strategy of the state youth policy in an educational institution in addition to traditional functions of public organization.