

Foreign Language Teacher Training in Higher Professional Education System

O.V. Usachova

Tambov State University named after G.R. Derzhavin

Key words and phrases: professional education; linguistic, socio-linguistic, cross-cultural, communicative, cognitive, linguo-methodical competence; reflection; education management.

Abstract: Solution of the task of efficient organization and optimization of the educational process of future foreign language teachers is linked with matters of their scientific organization. Any activity is considered as qualitative if it possesses personal meaning. The most significant for any teacher is reflexive style of management.