

Process Statistic Approach to State Management

S.M. Shcherbakov

Rostov State Economic University, Rostov-on-Don

Key words and phrases: business processes; visual and imitation modeling; labor expenses; state and municipal management.

Abstract: The paper studies matters of evaluation of labor expenses of state employees and citizens on business processes associated with state and municipal control. The application of process statistic approach, visual and imitation modeling for evaluation and improvement of business processes of state management is proposed.