

Specific Features of Raising Linguistic Professional Competence of Travel Managers

S.O. Nadtochiy

Voronezh Institute of High Technology, Voronezh

Key words and phrases: foreign economic activity; linguistic professional competence; expertise; competence; competence approach; professional competence.

Abstract: The paper studies structural elements of raising linguistic professional competence of travel managers; the complex of qualification requirements, professional and personal qualities of travel managers are revealed; their professional functions are determined and on the basis of produced data the main elements of linguistic professional competence of the specialist within the framework of foreign economic policy cooperation are outlined.