

Analysis of Brand Models

D.S. Masalsky

Russian State University of Trade and Economics, Moscow

Key words and phrases: brand; brand analysis; brand management; brand model; trademark; trade organization.

Abstract: The paper studies the classification based on the analysis of the most popular model brands. The several models are illustrated by the classification. On the basis of the revealed drawbacks of the existing models the recommendations are given; these contribute to the improvement of the new brand model aimed at the creation of the trade organization brand.