

Quality Management of Projects
for Telecommunication Systems Designing (Illustrated by Management Company «ProektStroySvyaz» (Limited Liability Company))

O.A. Sazhneva

Tambov State Technical University, Tambov

Key words and phrases: internal audit; Management Company; project organization; quality management; telecommunications.

Abstract: The paper considers the quality management in the course of designing telecommunication systems in conformity with the requirements of series ISO 9001–2008 standards; meeting these assumes creation of a total management system. The quality policy of project organization as well as the main principles of managerial decisions, such as profitability, expediency, coordination, flexibility are considered.