

Innovative Activity of Small Businesses as Factor of Growth and Efficiency of their Functioning

E.V. Bykovskaya

Tambov State Technical University, Tambov

Key words and phrases: efficiency; intensification; innovations; small business.

Abstract: The paper analyzes the main directions of fueling the innovative activity of small businesses. The role of the government in this process in the real sector of economy is characterized. The technological aspect of innovations in small companies is characterized.