Implementation of the Processes of Standardization and Quality Management of the Life-Support Enterprise (on the example of OOO «Housing-Operational Complex 1», Tambov)

P.V. Yanevich

Tambov State Technical University, Tambov

Key words and phrases: life-support enterprise; quality management; standardization.

Abstract: The paper summarizes the experience of implementation of standardization and quality management at the life support enterprise: the role of standardization in the quality system of the life support enterprise is analyzed; the development of the mechanism of standardization in SRR «ZhEK 1» in such areas as the preparatory phase, implementation phase and the phase of automation is examined. The flow chart of standardization and product quality management of SRR «ZhEK 1» is developed; its efficiency is determined.