Some Features of the Subject of Learning-Cognitive Activity in the Continuing Multilevel Professional Training

D.V. Legenchuk

Kurgan State University, Kurgan

Key words and phrases: activity; concept; continuity; education system; learning-cognitive activity; principle.

Abstract: The paper studies the importance and place of learning-cognitive activity in the educational process of continuing multi-level professional training in conditions of modernization of Russian education. The author attempts to analyze the possibilities and significance of the subject in the concept of continuity of multi-level professional training.

© Д.В. Легенчук, 2011