

Preparing of Youth to Marriage and Family Life in Soviet and Post-Soviet Russia

M.V. Syomina

Transbaikal State Humanitarian-Pedagogical University named after N.G. Chernyshevsky, Chita

Key words and phrases: competence approach; family crisis; family science; family science competence; readiness to marriage; socialist state; personal readiness of youth to marriage; youth training.

Abstract: The family is the most important social institution that ensures the reproduction and development of social and personal relationships. This article discusses the contents of preparing young people for marriage and family in Soviet and post-Soviet Russia. The basic constructs of the preparatory process in renewing the educational space – personal readiness of young people for marriage and family and youth's family competence are analyzed.

---

© М.В. Сёмина, 2011