

Terms of Offensive Administrative Responsibility for Carrying out Medical Activities without a License

M.A. Duka

Pacific National University, Khabarovsk

Key words and phrases: administrative responsibility; licensing; medical activity; public health.

Abstract: The aim of this paper is to highlight the current regulatory framework for licensing of medical activities, as well as to present a brief analysis of the prerequisite for the administrative responsibility for carrying out medical activities without a license under Part 2 of Art. 14.1 and Part 1 of Art. 19.20 Code of the Russian Federation on Administrative Violations given the prevailing jurisprudence.

© М.А. Дука, 2011