Economic Efficiency and Environmental Safety of Winter Maintenance of Highways

P.V. Rubinov

Tambov State Technical University, Tambov

Key words and phrases: budget; economic efficiency; environmental safety; maintenance of roads; monitoring; reagent.

Abstract: The paper discusses the problem of using abrasive salt mixture in the winter period. The economic assessment of unaccounted losses from the use of abrasive salt mixture for the region is made. It is proposed to apply the methodology of Yu.V. Kuznetsov to select the optimal reagents for the region and automation for operational management of road services.