

Using Media Technology at History Lessons

O.V. Shchuplenkov, A.A. Slezin

Tambov State Technical University, Tambov

Key words and phrases: educational technology; information culture; means of communication; programmed instruction.

Abstract: This paper describes a variety of media techniques in teaching history to students. It is concluded that information technology, combined with the right (or designed) technology of training, provides the required level of quality, variability, differentiation and individualization of education and training.

© Н.О. Щупленков, А.А. Слезин, 2012