

The Problem of Ensuring the Competitiveness of Russian Corporations in Conditions of Economy Globalization

A.N. Bushuev

Saratov State Socio-Economic University, Saratov

Key words and phrases: corporation competitiveness; corporate management; cluster; globalization; industrial policy.

Abstract: The article considers the problems of development of modern management tools by national corporations, using the cluster approach in management in order to enhance their competitiveness. The analysis of problems and possible directions of the economy development, taking into account the impact of globalization has been made.

© А.Н. Бушуев, 2012