
Methods of Experimental Work in the Study of Multi-Level Process of Continuing Professional Education

D.V. Legenchuk

Kurgan State University, Kurgan

Key words and phrases: concept; continuity; education; experiment; experimental work; method; process; research; the system of education.

Abstract: The paper explores the methods that are the basis of pedagogical study of continuing professional education. The author has made an attempt to justify the need to incorporate these methods into the research process of continuing multi-level professional education.

© Д.В. Легенчук, 2012