
Improving Regulatory Framework of Environmental Education and Training in the Russian Federation

V.E. Shudegov

Education Committee of the State Duma of the Russian Federation, Moscow

Key words and phrases: balanced environment; development of environmental education; legislation in environmental education; environmental issues.

Abstract: The paper analyzes the Russian legislation in environmental education. The urgency of raising public awareness of the problem has been stressed; weaknesses in legislative field have been identified; strategic directions of development of environmental education in Russia have been set.
