

On Some Questions of Improving Registration of Real Property

L.V. Vorobyeva

Tambov State Technical University, Tambov

Key words and phrases: civil law improvement; notarization of real estate transactions; state registration of rights; state registration of transactions.

Abstract: The paper explores the issues of improving civil law under the concept developed for this purpose. The legislative norms governing the state registration of real property rights and legal position of notarization of real estate transactions have been analyzed.
