

Development of the System of Uniform Crime Reporting in Federal Drug Control Service of the Russian Federation

A.V. Seleznyov, E.V. Burtseva

Tambov State Technical University, Tambov

Key words and phrases: automated system; criminal cases reporting; database; Federal Drug Control Service of the Russian Federation; primary reporting documents; uniform crime reporting.

Abstract: The paper identifies the features of the system of uniform crime reporting in FDCS bodies of the Russian Federation; it involves receiving, registration and verification of crime reports, as well as register of criminals and criminal cases. The need for introduction of computer technologies in statistical reporting has been proved. Features of development and advantages of application of the automated system of crime reporting in FDCS bodies of the RF have been considered.
