

The Need to Standardize the Quality of Public Services

V. V. Lutovinova

Tambov State Technical University, Tambov

Key words and phrases: direction and objectives of standardization; public services; service quality standards.

Abstract: We assessed the changes in the quality of public services, the basic reasons for the provision of public services have been explored; the main approaches and goals of standardization as one of the leading ways to improve the quality of public services have been identified.