

Ensuring Constitutional Rights of the Suspect under Arrest

A. V. Platyonkin

Tambov State Technical University, Tambov

Key words and phrases: arrest of the suspect; criminal code; criminal procedures; human rights and freedom of citizens; investigator's responsibilities.

Abstract: The paper studies the grounds for the arrest, the rights of the suspect under arrest, the responsibilities of detectives and investigators for ensuring the rights of the suspects; the conformity of the statements of the Criminal Code to the Constitution of the RF in ensuring the rights of the suspects has been analyzed. The objective and subjective complexities in ensuring the rights of the suspect have been made. The proposals about the changes in the legislation to ensure the rights of the suspect under arrest have been made.