

Provision of Constitutional Rights of Citizens to Work and Social Protection against Unemployment

N.V. Rudakova

Tambov State Technical University, Tambov

Key words and phrases: freedom of work; human resources development; labor market; laborious employment; relief works; social security; state policy of public employment assistance; unemployed citizens.

Abstract: This article analyzes the provision of citizens' constitutional rights to labor and social protection against unemployment; the rights of citizens to employment have been examined in objective and subjective understanding, as an element of law and legal status.