

The Issues of Constitutional and Legal Regulation of Information Legislation in the RF

O. A. Shubina

Tambov State Technical University, Tambov

Key words and phrases: freedom of information; information access; informational resource; informational resource access; information search; materialization of information; obtaining and using information.

Abstract: The author deals with some problems of improving informational legislation in the Russian Federation. Among other notions the concept of “information access” is examined due to the fact that this term is widely used in statutory acts.
