

Ascertainment of Liability for Failure to Give Assistance to Persons in Mortal Danger under Criminal Laws of Some Foreign Countries

S. I. Molchanova

Tambov State Technical University, Tambov

Key words and phrases: assistance; claims; duty; human security; liability; rule.

Abstract: The paper explores the pressing questions of ascertaining criminal liability under the criminal legislation of the Russian Federation and some foreign countries for the failure to give assistance to persons in mortal danger. The legislative structure of these crimes in the Criminal Codes of different countries has been compared; negative and positive descriptions of different legislations have been identified.