Abstract: The authors discuss the activities of the Prosecutor's Office of Tajikistan in wartime against violations of supplies for the Red Army and the mobilization of material resources. Special attention is paid to the implementation of the order of the Prosecutor of the USSR "On the fight against violators of state discipline" of April 17, 1942, which instructed to prevent the facts of liberal, conciliatory attitude towards violators of the law. On the basis of reliable facts we demonstrated the effectiveness of the measures of the Prosecutor's Office of the republic to identify cases of delays in supplies of agricultural products to the state, evasion of mobilization, non-payment of taxes, fines and tax arrears. These cases were reported to the Party and the Soviet authorities that used criminal law and civil methods of dealing with violations of the law, state compensation for material damage.
