

A Study of Working Conditions at an Industrial Enterprise

A. A. Artamonov, A. T. Dzhumataeva,
V. V. Matyukin, V. Ya. Borschev

Tambov State Technical University, Tambov, Russia

Keywords: harmful factors; production; industrial injuries; occupational diseases; working conditions.

Abstract: A study of working conditions in the workshop for the thermal processing of parts of an industrial enterprise. The harmful effect on workers in the process of laboring of chemical factors, industrial noise, microclimate and the severity of the labor process has been established. Based on the results of studies, measures have been developed to improve working conditions at an industrial enterprise.