

On Changes in the Organization of External State Monitoring in Russia

Yu. N. Matveev, L. V. Azarova

Tver State Technical University, Tver, Russia

Keywords: audit; budgetary institutions; state financial monitoring; commercial organizations; preventive actions; revision; risks.

Abstract: The analysis of the current practice of financial monitoring in Russia is given. A study of the main directions, methods and forms of its implementation in the budgetary sphere and commercial organizations was carried out. The procedure for its implementation, participants, methods and techniques of verification are considered. On the basis of the comparison, common features and differences of external financial monitoring in commercial organizations and the budgetary sphere were identified, conclusions were formulated.
