

Industrial Waste Management at Industrial Enterprises (Using the Example of the Tambov Region)

V. Ya. Borshchev, N. Ts. Gatapova, I. R. Klimachev

Tambov State Technical University, Tambov, Russia

Keywords: waste; industrial enterprises; waste storage and disposal; environmental problems.

Abstract: The analysis of the current situation with industrial waste in the Tambov region is carried out. Some reduction in solid waste in industrial enterprises has been recorded. In the total volume of waste, a significant share is accounted for by waste from livestock, processing industries, and sugar industry enterprises. The main types of industrial waste at various enterprises are considered. A study of the activities of industrial enterprises in the field of industrial waste management has been conducted. The enterprises have quite clearly and efficiently organized waste management. At the same time, the small share of waste that is sent for recycling and reused at the enterprises is noteworthy.

---